

Maximising Your Facebook Business Page

Are you getting the most out of your Facebook business page? Do you suspect there are improvements you could make and features you don't know about?

JFM Creatives are running a half day course in Ashburton to take both business owners and staff through the features and benefits of a Facebook business page.

The practical workshop will be delivered face to face and every attendee gets a bound take-home workbook.

Location or dates don't suit? Call us to enquire about upcoming dates, one on one sessions or training at your office.

+ Enquire now to book in a date

+ Cost : $295* per attendee
*All pricing +gst

+ JFM Creatives Studio
Corner East & Cameron Streets, Ashburton

+ Register at: www.jfm.co.nz/facebook-content-2/
or e-mail janice@jfm.co.nz

Units covered

- + Benefits of using Facebook for business
- + Completing a profile audit of your page
- + Creating a custom URL
- + Setting up a staff member or agency as an editor / administrator

Content

- + Creating engaging posts
- + Benefits of a social media calendar
- + Benefits of social media guidelines
- + How to schedule a post
- + Promoting your page to friends
- + Dealing with complaints / negative comments
- + Sharing posts off your web page
- + Linking Facebook to Instagram / Twitter
- + Successful / unsuccessful Facebook posts

Features

- + Overview of Facebook advertising
- + Promoting your page to friends
- + Setting up instant replies via Facebook messenger
- + Using the Facebook Pages Manager mobile app
- + Measuring success: page insights

Places are strictly limited, register today.

About Your Tutor

Janice McKay is university qualified in communications and has a love for strategic communications with a flair for brand building and engagement. This includes copywriting for websites, advertising, brochures, proposals, social media and more.

jfm creatives